

SCHOLARSHIPS OPPORTUNITIES
CARDOZO SCHOOL OF LAW
2017-2018

The Cardozo LL.M. Program provides the following merit-based scholarships to qualified full-time candidates who begin their studies in the Fall and Spring terms.

DAJV- Cardozo School of Law Scholarship

Top five DAJV registrants who apply to Cardozo's LLM program by November 30th will receive an automatic tuition discount for academic year 2018-19. Meet with Dean Myteberi in Cologne to find out more: <https://cardozo.yu.edu/llm-germany-dajv>

The Cardozo LL.M. Scholarship for Dispute Resolution and Advocacy (for international and domestic LL.Ms)

Cardozo LL.M. Scholarship for Dispute Resolution and Advocacy is a grant of $35,000 awarded each term to one outstanding candidate to pursue a full-time LL.M. degree in Dispute Resolution and Advocacy. This scholarship will take the form of a partial reduction of tuition, one-half to be credited toward tuition for the first semester of study, and the other half to be credited toward tuition in the second semester of study. Recipients are chosen on the basis of their intellect, academic credentials, demonstrated academic promise, and achievement in the field of Dispute Resolution and Advocacy.

In addition to completing the LL.M. application, candidates for the Cardozo LL.M. Scholarship for Dispute Resolution and Advocacy must submit the following two essays:

1. In an essay of no more than 2 pages, describe a situation in your personal or professional life in which you either chose to or were required to resort to dispute resolution processes. This may include arbitration, court-ordered mediation, divorce proceedings, a dispute amongst friends or family members, or any situation where you employed your skills as negotiator or advocate. Describe how you chose this route, whether you were satisfied with the outcome, and what you would have done differently.
2. In an essay of no more than 2 pages, describe what qualities you possess that you believe will contribute to your success in the field of Dispute Resolution and Advocacy.

The deadline to apply for this scholarship for the Spring 2018 term is December 1, 2017.

The deadline to apply for this scholarship for the Fall 2018 term is April 15, 2018. Selections are made without regard to financial need.

The Dean's Merit Scholarship (for international and domestic LL.Ms)

Each term Cardozo School of Law identifies exemplary full-time LL.M. applicants who have demonstrated superior academic achievement in law school and in their profession, and awards them with partial merit scholarships and the designation of Dean's Merit Scholar. This scholarship will take the form of a partial reduction of tuition, one-half to be credited toward tuition for the first semester of study, and the other half to be credited toward tuition in the second semester of study. All full-time admitted applicants are automatically considered for this scholarship and no additional application is necessary.

Selections are made without regard to financial need.

The Distinguished LL.M. Scholar Award (for international and domestic LL.Ms)

The Distinguished LL.M. Scholar Award is a grant of $40,000 to pursue a full-time LL.M. degree. Each term, Cardozo School of Law awards the most prestigious LL.M. scholarship to a select group of outstanding LL.M. applicants. This scholarship will take the form of a partial reduction of tuition, one-half to be credited toward tuition for the first semester of study, and the other half to be credited toward tuition in the second semester of study. Distinguished LL.M. Scholars are chosen on the basis of their intellect, academic credentials, demonstrated academic promise, and achievement in the field of law.

Selections are made without regard to financial need.

External International Financial Aid Resources:

(For students who are not eligible for US Federal Financial Aid). This information is not exhaustive and your own research may be very beneficial.

- www.edupass.org/finaid/
- www.iefaf.org/
- www.careerinfonet.org/scholarshipsearch
- www.educationusa.state.gov/find-advising-center