Let's Go West: LL.M. made in the USA

Now in its fourth decade, our seminar targets students, law clerks, post-graduates and doctoral candidates interested in studying law in the United States. The majority of our speakers are recent graduates of U.S. law programs and come well-equipped with information on how best to prepare for this adventure. This includes the ins and outs of the application process and the challenges posed by financial aid, a subject which due to its growing importance is now addressed in its own session on Saturday morning.

In addition to the seminar, our LL.M. Fair "Meet the Law Schools" will once again give prospective students the opportunity to network directly with senior representatives of U.S. law schools.

Participants will enjoy a running dinner in the evening, where they may speak with hiring partners and associates of leading law firms.

Please join us!

To the USA with the DAJV

The 30th anniversary of the DAJV Info-Seminar

A degree program in the U.S. is not only personally enriching – it often pays off in a future career.

40 years ago, thirteen German LL.M. graduates founded the DAJV, the German American Lawyers Association. That year they spent at an U.S. law school exposed them to an exciting clash of legal cultures – and gave birth to innovation.

As a participant of the Info Seminar and LL.M. Fair you are furthering the mission and ideals of the DAJV's founders!

Financial Aid Options (held in German)

Securing financial aid for an LL.M. degree is an essential if not decisive part of planning the entire experience.

As tuitions are high, an LL.M. degree can often only be pursued if the applicant receives some means of outside support. This section will supply you with information about potential sources of financial aid.

How to finance your LL.M. with education funds

DAJV in cooperation with Brain Capital GmbH – the LL.M. Education Fund

The LL.M. Education Fund offers DAJV members and participants of the DAJV LL.M. Seminar an alternative option to finance their LL.M. studies. The fund covers tuition fees and living expenses associated with the LL.M.. Students do not have to make any payments during their studies, nor do they have to repay a fixed debt obligation with interest upon graduation. Repayments are made dependent on your future income. The concept thereby ensures that no student is overburdened by debt (solidarity principle).

Representatives of Brain Capital will be available for further information during the LL.M. Fair.

Provided in thankful first-time cooperation with our Swiss partner, Lawbility who is hosting their LL.M. Fair “LEXPO” on June 16, 2016 in Zurich.

Lawbility

Lawbility is Switzerland’s leading training institution that provides in-depth, practice-oriented seminars for professional legal English language, Swiss bar exam preparation, and other professional legal skills programs. Lawbility has thereby created a platform for the legal community and established strong ties to universities, law societies, legal professionals and law students, allowing us to directly reach this specific target group.

At the LEXPO, Lawbility will offer seminars on LL.M. studies involving presentations from distinguished domestic lawyers who are alumni of U.S. universities.
