LL.M. made in the U.S.

For 45 years the Deutsch-Amerikanische Juristen-Vereinigung /German American Lawyers' Association (DAJV) has been a leader in transatlantic legal education and exchange. Most of our 2,500 members have graduated with degrees from U.S. law schools and many attended one of our events before applying for their American legal education.

This year, in response to the Covid19 pandemic, we are venturing new grounds: Our traditional DAJV LL.M. event goes virtual and will be extended to three days, whereby we will maintain the successful concept of a combined seminar and fair. What remains unchanged, however, is our passion for connecting as many interested participants as possible with the best U.S. law schools.

Join us and a group of highly motivated prospective students for the upcoming annual DAJV LL.M. Days 2020.

DAJV LL.M. Days Information

Who will I meet?

Some of the best German law students and legal trainees at different stages of preparation for advanced legal education in the U.S.

How can I present my law school?

Your university will be assigned a virtual profile where you can chat with interested students and use a planning tool to arrange a video call with a fixed date and time. You can also upload documents and videos. We would like to encourage you to invite alumnis of your school to act as additional representatives. This will allow you to increase the number of counselling sessions that can be held simultaneously. If you wish, we will be happy to assist you in contacting your alumni. We are pretty sure that we do have alumni of yours among our members.

What is the fee?

Please contact us if you would like to receive information about the participation fees: llmday@dajv.de

What does the fee cover?

Your fee includes a profile on the virtual fair as well as the placement of your logo on advertising campaigns (print/social media/DAJV website) and your university profile on the DAJV website prior to the event. You can nominate up to four representatives for video calls and virtual roundtables.

How exactly will the video calls and virtual roundtables look like?

We will provide all law schools with the opportunity to conduct pre-scheduled video interviews during the days of the fair (i.e. November 6-7, 3 hours each, 5-8 pm CET, 11 am-2 pm EST). Interested participants will be able to book such interviews via a calendar displayed on each individual university profiles visible to all participants. In addition, all law schools are offered the possibility to hold their own virtual roundtable (VR). Such VRs are an optional format that each law school may use at its own discretion. Basically, the VR option can be used by a participating law school to offer panel discussions at any time during the fair with any duration and any frequency desired, which the participants may freely enter without prior appointment. Our event system will provide for all required software for both, 1:1 talks and VR. You don't need to organize for own software solutions (e.g. Skype, Zoom etc.).

When will it take place?

The DAJV LL.M. Days 2020 will take place from Thursday, November 5 to Saturday, November 7, 2020

By when do I have to apply?

Early booking and advance payment are required and encouraged to make sure your law school will benefit from our entire marketing campaign. Please apply by Friday, October 2, 2020.
