See you in Frankfurt!

Join the Transatlantic Legal Conference 2024

We are delighted to welcome you to Frankfurt for our Transatlantic Legal Conference #tlc24. The #tlc24 is the flagship event of our beloved association, alongside the Annual Conference, and is open to all interested persons. Co-organized by the DAJV working groups, which serve as forums fostering intellectual and practical exchange among lawyers from all professions, the event presents an opportunity to discuss current topics and cases of transatlantic relevance with recognized experts from the US and Germany.

This year, our working groups will cover the following areas of law:

- Arbitration/Litigation/Mediation (ALM)
- Antitrust/Regulated Industries/Media (ARIM)
- Mergers & Acquisitions and Corporate Law (M&A)

Additionally, we have prepared a Focus Panel in the area of 'Regulation & Compliance' for you. The event concludes with a festive dinner featuring a welcome address by Norman Thatcher Scharpf, the Consul General of the U.S. in Frankfurt am Main and a keynote by the Hessian Minister of Justice, Christian Heinz. Ensure your participation by registering on our website. We are looking forward to welcoming you!

ALM // Session I, 2.00 – 3.30 p.m. Attorney Client Privilege Reloaded

The Attorney Client Privilege is continuing subject of discussion in cross border disputes between Parties from US common law and civil law jurisdictions. We will discuss with international practitioners how to maneuver hands-on the clash of the two legal systems. Is this feasible at all? What are the challenges that come up in almost every case? Are there best practices for German companies how to not get derailed in US litigation?

ALM // Session II, 4.30 – 6.00 p.m.

A Tale of Two Stories – the Role of Litigation and Crisis P.R. in Germany and the United States

When events in a court of law begin to drive the court of public opinion, strategic communication is necessary to stay on course. Litigation P.R. is unique and different from other PR practices. In Germany, Litigation P.R. is still a young child. In the United States, the use of mass media to present a particular narrative to the public has been employed by both plaintiffs and prosecutors since the early 1980s. In both countries the arrival of social media has changed the momentum. We will discuss recent trends and do's and don'ts in this discipline with experts from both sides of the Atlantic.

M&A // Session I, 2.00 – 3.30 p.m.

AI in M&A – Legal Tech on Steroids?

Explore the future of M&A transactions with our panel as we dissect the impact of Artificial Intelligence. From predictive analytics guiding deal strategies over due diligence automation to generative AI-based post-merger integration, AI is revolutionizing the M&A landscape. However, with great innovation comes legal complexities and challenges—privacy concerns in data-driven decisions, regulatory compliance, and potential biases. Join the conversation with the General Counsel of Germany's hottest and most talked about AI company, the Founder & CEO of one of the rising German legal tech companies, one of Germany's most prominent lawyers specializing in the areas of data economy and digitalization and the Head of IT of the world's largest automotive supplier who not only recently acquired a stake in Aleph Alpha, but whose vision it is to take the connected and digitalized world to the next level with the help of AI. Delve into real-world examples and join us in navigating the nuanced intersection of AI and M&A.

M&A // Session II, 4.15 – 5.45 p.m.

Forced shareholder exits in restructurings – how sharp is the blade?

With the advent of the Corporate Stabilisation and Restructuring Act (StaRUG), German companies have yet another means in their toolbox to restructure their debts in a court-approved procedure. Can this tool also be used to enable distressed M&A deals, potentially even against the will of significant shareholders? How can difficult or unhelpful shareholders be dealt with? What lessons can be learned from the more mature bankruptcy landscape in the US? What additional considerations apply in case of cross border situations? We look forward to discussing these and other questions with our renowned experts.

Regulation & Compliance //

Session I, 2.00 – 3.30 p.m.

Market Autonomy vs. State Regulation: Whistleblower Protection and Supply Chain Due Diligence across the Atlantic

While the United States traditionally champion market-driven self-regulation and corporate responsibility, Germany is increasingly charting a course towards robust economic regulation. Recent milestones like the Whistleblower Protection Act and the Supply Chain Due Diligence Act showcase Germany's evolving stance on corporate governance. Our panel aims to unravel the complexities surrounding these laws, from lingering legal ambiguities to critical questions about the competitive edge of German businesses vis-à-vis their American counterparts. Through the lens of whistleblower protection and supply chain due diligence, we aim to dissect the divergent compliance strategies and their profound impacts on both sides of the Atlantic.

ARIM // Session II, 4.15 – 5.45 p.m.

Use of AI and Legal Tech in Law Firms

We want to discuss practical examples to show real scenarios for the use of AI and legal tech applications in law firms. Our aim is to make the abstract terms “AI” and “Legal Tech” tangible. We will also discuss the different framework conditions in the EU and the USA with regard to train an AI application.
